Course Overview

This qualification reflects the role of community services workers involved in the delivery, management and coordination of person-centred services to individuals, groups, and communities.
At this level, workers have specialised skills in community services and work autonomously within their scope of practice under broad directions from senior management. Workers support people to make change in their lives to improve personal and social wellbeing and may also have responsibility for the supervision of other workers and volunteers.
They may also undertake case management and program coordination.

Total Course Fee:

$ 28,750 AUD

Mode of Study

On Campus

Duration

104 Weeks

Work Placement Requirements

Students are required to complete a minimum 400 hours of work placement in a regulated community services organisation within the course duration.

For practical placement purposes, this vocational sector requires

- a current and satisfactory Police Record Check
- NDIS Check
- Evidence of Influenza immunisation
- Evidence of COVID-19 vaccination
- Working with children check (WWCC)
