CHC43121 Certificate IV in Disability Support

(CRICOS Course Code 114326H)

Course Overview

This qualification reflects the role of individuals in a range of community settings and peoples' homes, who provide support in a manner that empowers people with disabilities to achieve greater levels of independence, self-reliance, community participation and wellbeing. Workers promote a person-centred approach, work according to and may contribute to an individualised plan, and work without direct supervision. They may be required to supervise and/or coordinate a small team.

The skills in this qualification must be applied in accordance with Commonwealth and State/Territory legislation, Australian standards and industry codes of practice. No licensing, legislative, regulatory or certification requirements apply to this qualification at the time of publication.

Course Delivery and Assessment

Students attend face to face classes for a minimum of 20 scheduled course contact hours per week. Students complete learning activities in class to prepare them for the summative assessments that follow at prescribed intervals. Assessment methods include written questions, case studies, role plays, research and projects.

Pathways

Students completing CHC43121 Certificate IV in Disability Support can continue studying CHC52021 Diploma of Community Services and CHC62015 Advanced Diploma of Community Sector Management. Post-graduate employment pathways include working as a: Disability Officer – day support, Disability support officer/worker, Employment coordinator (disability) Residential care officer, Senior personal care assistant, Social educator.

Further Education Pathways - This course is designed to provide students with the skills and knowledge required to work in the Disability industry in a residential facility under supervision with clearly defined guidelines and service plans. Those who complete this qualification may progress their studies in the Health Care sector.
